

I urge you to not allow the CBA petition to weaken the Indiana's Do Not Call list.

Indiana's no-call list has been very effective at eliminating nuisance calls by telemarketers.

I do not understand why any company would want to contact someone that is telling them that they do not want to be contacted.